TO PLAY HERE THANKSGIVING

GREENSBORO WILL HAVE ITS USUAL SIGHT OF THE PIGSKIN.

Oak Ridge and Guilford Will Give us a Game—The Athletic Association Sustains the Protest of Oak Ridge.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Oak Ridge, November 13.—Arrangements are about complete for the game of football in Greensboro on Thanksgiving between our team and the Guilford College team. Our boys are beginning to round up in shape. The practicing has more snap and vim than it has ever had before. The weather is fine for football. The game on Thanksgiving will be the greatest game of football to be played in North Carolina this fall, and all lovers of the sport will doubtless see a good game on that day.

The teams have tried to arrange for a series of three games but on account of a conflict of schedules these games have been impossible, so they have but one chance for the championship, consequently the work is going to be hard and the game is going to be one worth seeing.

It will be remembered that when the A. & M. College went up to play Oak Ridge the 11th of October, the team put on Dalton and Worth, two players who had been challenged the day before by Guilford College and taken out of the A. & M. College game at Greensboro. It was wrong to have taken these players out of the Greensboro game and then to have offered to play them at Oak Ridge. The question of their eligibility should have been fought out by the two institutions first contesting the right.

As it was, Oak Ridge played the game, allowing the two players to play, but with the distinct understanding that the game would be protested. This was agreed to. Dr. Sykes, of Wake Forest, the president of the association, at once took the matter up and by vote of the association, 5 to 1 (Oak Ridge and A. & M. not voting) sustained the protest and ruled out Dalton and Worth. This virtually gives the game to Oak Ridge.

FILLING CALLS FOR TEACHERS.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Whitsett, Nov. 14.—The Y. M. C. A. is holding a series of very interesting services this week. It is special week of prayer over the world by the Association.

A most entertaining sermon was preached here Sunday by Rev. J. D. Andrews of Burlington, in which he was very severe in condemnation of Christian Science doctrines.

New students have arrived in large numbers recently to enter Whitsett Institute. They come from widely scattered sections. This is a very prosperous term of the school.

Miss Bessie Gofford, of Baskerville, Va., and Mr. John Dozier, of Nashville, have been recent visitors.

Dozens of calls for teachers have been filled this fall but the demand exceeds the supply. Many good positions have been filled by students from the normal course.

Spinsters' Convention at Guilford College. Communicated.

The Annual Convention of Spinsters will be held this year at Guilford College. All are very cordially invited to be present at the opening session which will take place in Memorial Hall, November 16, at 7:30 o'clock.

A goodly number of spinsters are expected to be present, among the most prominent of whom are Josephine Jane Green, of Raleigh, Rosilla Avigail Hodge, of Virginia, Penelope Gertrude Doolittle, of Bush Hill, Mary Sussanan Soapsticks, of Friendship and Ophelia Anabella Pitkins, of Per-simmon Grove.

After adjournment, refreshments will be served to all by some of the younger sisters.

Admission 15 cents; a pair (pear), 25 cents. Gentlemen will please note the latter and take advantage of reduced rates.

John D. Rockefeller has given $10,000 to the building fund of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Cleveland, O.

BURGLARY AT HIGH POINT.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

High Point, Nov. 13.—Burglars entered the store of Beeson Hardware Company early this morning and carried off a number of pistols, pocket knives and razors. There were several dollars in the money drawer which was untouched. Entrance was effected by removing a glass in the front door. The proprietors sleep in rooms over the store but they were not aware of the burglary until they entered the store for work this morning.

Miss Fannie Spencer while at Mrs. Farabee's yesterday evening fell over a tub, the edge of which struck her just over the left eye, inflicting a painful gash. Dr. W. J. McAnally attended to the wound.

Mr. John Woodling, a contractor of experience and ability, who has been residing for some time in Pennsylvania, is here again to locate.

Boyles Bros. is the style of a new firm here. They will handle groceries. Mrs. W. G. Fortune and children, of Asheville, are visiting the family of Rev. J. R. Scroggs, her father.

Dr. Stanton, who owns one of the vacant lots on Main street between the J. M. Sechrest and Ragan and Millis buildings, will erect a neat brick building in the near future.

FOURTH QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Met in Session at West Market Church Last Night—A New Board of Stewards Elected.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference for West Market Street Methodist church was held at the church last night. In addition to the usual routine business of a quarterly conference a new board of stewards was elected, composed of the following:

J. A. Odell, chairman; Dr. J. E. Wyche, secretary; W. F. Alderman, treasurer; C. H. Ireland, C. H. Dorsett, J. N. Leak, J. W. Landreth, T. M. Piekard, E. L. Sides, W. W. Wood, O. F. Pearce, Dr. Dred Peacock, F. C. Boyles, M. S. Sherwood, C. A. Bray, A. W. Vickory, J. N. Richardson, E. J. Stafford, R. R. Alley, W. P. Hutton, Prof. J. M. Bandy, Dr. J. H. Wheeler, W. T. Smith.

Prof. P. P. Claxton was elected superintendent of the Sunday school and Prof. W. R. Thompson president of the Epworth League. G. W. Ward and B. D. Knight were elected stewards for the Spring Garden Street Chapel, with E. P. Land as superintendent of the Sunday school.

The reports from the different branches of church work were very encouraging and showed a forward movement along all lines.

MILL OPERATIVES LIVING IN TENTS.

Associated Press.

The cotton mill trouble in Alamance county where several thousand operatives are locked out on account of their refusal to abandon the textile workers union is practically unchanged. For over a month eighteen or twenty mills have either been standing idle or running with reduced forces. The union operatives are vacating the factory houses as rapidly as possible, in accordance with orders issued some days ago. Those who have been able to secure employment elsewhere are temporarily living in tents furnished by the National Textile Union.

Corn Shucking.

A number of our young people enjoyed themselves in a corn shucking last night at the residence of Mrs. Jackson on Spring Garden street. After the corn was husked the party partook of an elegant supper and then amused themselves with games until a late hour warned them that they must make their adieus.

The Royal Tryolean Concert Company passed through this morning going from Petersburg to Winston. The company is composed of Austrians and Swiss and is playing only in star courses.

A SATISFACTORY MEETING.

MINISTERS UNEXPECTEDLY FIND NO OBSTACLES IN THE WAY.

Peace Propositions May be Formulated Much Sooner Than Was Expected, Owing to the Fact That Ministers Had Been Definitely Instructed by Their Governments.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Pekin, Nov. 13.—Via Shanghai Nov. 14.—A protracted conference of the foreign ministers was held today at the conclusion of which there was a general expression of gratification at the progress made towards reaching a settlement. It was said that most of the minor points had been disposed of and that an agreement had been reached upon several essential questions, the meeting having disclosed fewer differences over important points than was expected, which is largely due to the fact that the ministers have received definite instructions from their home governments. United States minister Conger said that he was encouraged to believe that the propositions would be ready to be submitted to the Chinese plenipotentiaries at an earlier date than he had hoped heretofore. The ministers will meet again tomorrow.

KRUGER ARRIVES AT SUEZ.

Eager After News, But When Asked for Interviews He Calmly Smoked.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Suez, Nov. 14.—The Dutch Warship Gelferland, with President Kruger, has just arrived here. Kruger is well and in good spirits, and shows no ill effects of the long voyage. While asking eagerly for news from the Transvaal and showing considerable interest in the reports regarding the plans for his reception in France the old gentleman was extremely reticent and calmly smoked his pipe. He refused to talk for publication about the recent events in South Africa or the approaching reception in Europe.

GREENSBORO TOBACCO MARKET.

A Tobacco Man Gives the Merchants "Down the Country" for Not Helping It Along.

A man interested closely in the tobacco business here accosted The Telegram this morning and laid in a complaint against the merchants of the town. He says that they do not take such interest in the tobacco trade as they should, and instead of talking up the market and saying what they can to encourage farmers to sell their tobacco here, they unconsciously talk against it.

He says that merchants are often heard to remark to farmers, "well, tobacco ain't bringin' much here now, is it?" and "I reckon Greensboro isn't as good a tobacco market as" such and such a place. Now the gentleman thinks that the merchants ought to talk to their country customers every chance they get in favor of this market, and that they should take an interest in the sales and keep up with what is going on. He does not think, of course, that anything untrue should be said. There is no reason why this should not be as good a market as any, and it is, while of course not so large. During the season anywhere from $400 to $2000 are paid out in cash every day for tobacco.

WRECK ON THE N. C. ROAD.

Fireman James Pearce of This City Slightly Injured—Two Cars Derailed.

The noon train from Raleigh was wrecked just below Burlington this morning. The first and second class cars were derailed, the engine and baggage cars remaining on the track. The accident, it is thought, was caused by an obstruction on the track. No one was seriously hurt, a woman being slightly scratched, and the fireman, James Pearce, of this city, who jumped from the engine, being hurt about the back. A special was sent from here about 12 o'clock and brought the passengers here.

Gone Fox Hunting.

The following gentlemen went to Manchester this afternoon on a fox hunt: Messrs. J. F. Jordan, Jno. J. Nelson, S. L. Gilmer, J. E. McKnight and Mr. Johnson, of Baltimore.

"A MIDNIGHT MASQUERADE."

It Was Attended by a Good House and Was as Nice as a Masquerade Could Be. "Why Jones Left Home."

The Una Clayton Company drew another full house last night, and again thoroughly satisfied the audience. As Poppy, a romping, funny and daring little tomboy, Miss Clayton was a great favorite, while the specialties were good. Mr. Cohn as the actor who was the last of a company of seventy-four, and alone, was compelled to do the work of all, was excellent. The Glee, of course, always comes in for a great part of the audience's appreciation. It turned out to be impossible for the Hewletts to give their comic wire dancing specialty because there was not room to stretch the wire. They gave one one specialty, however, the morning home-coming of a gentleman who had been out on a lark, which was tip top. The work of the orchestra was, as usual, enjoyable.

EXHIBITS ARE FINE.

The Chrysanthemum Fair Opens This Morning With Large Exhibits—High Point Delegation Arrives at Noon.

The ladies' chrysanthemum fair opened this morning with a good attendance. The exhibits of the flowers are all good and show great care in their cultivation. The High Point exhibitors did not reach here until noon, having missed the early morning train.

The judges are as follows:

On flowers, Messrs. J. Van Lindley, R. G. Lea, Mrs. Clarence R. Brown, Miss Ada Thompson and Mrs. M. E. Howard.

On fancy work, Miss Fanny Armfield, Mrs. E. M. Goolsby and Miss Eva Lindley.

On china and tapestry, Mrs. C. H. Ireland, Miss Belle Swain, and Miss Alma McDonald.

Mrs. Cone Entertains the Social Card Club.

Mrs. Ceasar Cone was the charming hostess yesterday afternoon at one of the most delightful meetings of the Social Card Club this season.

Duplicate whist was played.

Mrs. Cone's guests were, Miss Etta Cone, of Baltimore, Mesdames W. T. Gayle, A. Lindau, W. P. Bynum, James Boyd, J. D. Glenn, J. T. J. Battle, Hague, E. A. Holt, J. H. Walsh, B. C. Sharpe, Shields, and Misses Bertha Mebane, Irving Scales, Ruth Porter, May and Alice Small, Lottie Peyton, and Kate Waddell.

May be a Sky Scraper Some Day.

The work of raising the walls of the new Greensboro Loan and Trust building is well under headway. The foundation walls are 56 inches in thickness, and the walls proper, as high as the first floor, will be 26 inches. This exceptional foundation is laid so that at any time when the company desires to do so three more stories may be added to the building. When that is done it will be a genuine sky scraper.

Returns to Guilford.

Mr. Joseph C. Hardin, of Henry county, Indiana, has moved to Greensboro and will engage in business here. He will occupy Mr. George Stone's house on Church street, adjoining the property of the late Judge Dick.

Mr. Hardin is a native of Guilford county, having gone west immediately after the war. Mrs. Hardin and her two daughters arrived last night.

New Grocery Store.

A new grocery store is being opened in the room formerly occupied by Mr. O. D. Boycott, on West Market street. It will be conducted under the firm name of Respass Bros. These gentlemen are from Winston, and are thoroughly conversant with the details of the grocery business and will doubtless meet with a large measure of success.

Two fresh cases of bubonic plague were reported in Alexandria, Egypt, yesterday.

EMPEROR OPENS REICHSTAG.

MAKES A SPEECH REGARDING THE CHINESE OPERATIONS.

Says That the Murder of the German Minister United all the Powers, and Their Only Desire Was to Restore Order, Punish the Guilty and Guarantee Safety.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—In a speech opening the Reichstag today the Emperor said the fanatical hate and dark superstition spurred on by unscrupulous advice to the court had misled the Chinese into the atrocities of last summer. News of the murder of the German Minister Baron von Ketteler, the Emperor said, had united all nations, which otherwise would be separated, and the only desire of the powers was to restore order in the country, punish the guilty, and prevent the repetition of such outrages. He regretted that it was impossible to convocate Reichstag at the time of the outbreak, but it was then impracticable. He would state the probable cost of operations now and he was confident that the Reichstag would agree that the expenditure was necessary to protect Germany's interests and honor.

TO BE MARRIED TOMORROW.

Mr. Rankin Leaves for Sherwood, Where He Will be Married to Miss Gaineys Tomorrow.

Mr. G. A. Rankin left this afternoon for Sherwood, N. C., where he will be married tomorrow to Miss Jane Gaineys. He will be met at Sherwood by his brother, Rev. C. F. Rankin, who will perform the ceremony, assisted by Rev. W. L. Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin will spend several days with Mr. Rankin's brother at Red Spring, after which they will return to Greensboro, and take rooms in the Southern Loan and Trust building.

Miss Gaineys is well known here, having made Greensboro her home for several years. Mr. Rankin is a member of the firm of Vanstony Clothing Company.

OPERA HOUSE CHAIRS HERE.

They Were Stored Away Yesterday Afternoon—Work on the Hall Progressing Nicely.

Contractor Bain is pushing the work on the City Hall and Opera House rapidly now, and when Manager Morey said that his company might play a spring engagement in it this season, he may not have been shy of the truth.

The opera chairs have arrived and were stored in the old town hall yesterday afternoon. There are 1,000 of them and the cost is about $2,300. They are the regulation opera chair, with mahogany finish. The stage scenery and fixtures, which were bought some time ago, have not been shipped.

Friends Meeting Increasing in Interest.

The interest in the meetings at the Friends Church is on the increase. An inspiring service last night of song, testimony and prayer was followed by remarks by Mr. Lee. His line of thought was further discussed by Mr. Chilson in a devout and able manner. The text was "Follow peace with all men and holiness without which no man can see the Lord."

The afternoon meeting was a time of real heartsearching and prayer. All are cordially invited to attend the meetings held daily at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Suit Made a Compromise.

Mr. Algernon S. Phelps, Jr., of Chicago, representing the "New England Manufacturing Company," was here yesterday, and settled a suit for $500, against J. W. and C. R. Elmore, of Brown Summit. He brought suit in the Federal court, took the deputy marshal with him yesterday to serve the summons, but instead of serving it, the case was compromised, and the suit withdrawn.

Yellow Fever Abating in Havana.

Mr. W. W. Wood is in receipt of a letter from his son in Cuba, who recently returned from a visit home, stating that the yellow fever is abating in that island. Mr. Wood, Jr., arrived safely and found the Greensboro boys in Havana all well.

CONCERTED ACTION.

The Telegram spoke yesterday of Greensboro's fine progress in the past few years and asked the question if something couldn't yet be done to accelerate still more the progress of the past and present. For nearly the whole of this year the town, along with the whole country, has been stirred over elections. Greensboro, for local causes, has been peculiarly so. While we believe in the free discussion of all public questions, more than is necessary to an intelligent undertaking of them is hurtful, especially if it causes estrangement of neighbors and friends, either in business or socially.

We are now all, no doubt, ready for political quiet and a business revival. Greensboro's future is bright along all lines. But the work rests with our people. More than that, it depends upon their united action. This fact cannot be gainsaid. The towns in the South that are fastest going forward are those in which the citizens act together for the common good. In Greensboro there should be no personal or public difference when it comes to pushing the city's interest. There are a number of enterprises that would add much to the town that could be secured by united action, and by some plan that would cause the initiative to be taken. It is a common remark that Greensboro's forces appear to be disorganized and lack direction. We are inclined to believe that this is a just criticism. If it is, why should it be so? Certainly we should be able in some way to agree to what we want and need, and then have some way of enlisting every effort, large and small, of every citizen, in securing it. Let's "all together" for a business and industrial revival.

A GREAT MISTAKE.

America is the land of prodigality. Nothing is too precious to be wasted. This is especially true of nature's free gifts, upon this continent unparalleled. From the Philadelphia Record we clip:

It has been a great mistake in America not to reserve to the public the banks of all rivers and lakes. There are many cities in which the right of private ownership of the margins of streams has resulted in the sale of the property to the railroads and the laying of tracks along water fronts which should belong to the people. Long ago the State of New Jersey should have condemned the site of the Palisades for park purposes. As it is, New York can much better afford to pay for the property than to have this famous wall of solid rock blown to pieces.

This has indeed been a great mistake. Individual rights in this country have been allowed to go to an extreme that is unjust and hurtful to public interest. We are enough of a Henry George theorist to believe that air and water and land were not created as the private property of a few to the exclusion of the many. Right of discovery may be a sound international tenet, but it is unjust when made to do service in sustaining the claim of an individual to some great gift of nature, like the palisades, a harbor, a waterfall, which all mankind have as inherent a right to use and enjoy as the man whose forefathers gained it by squatter sovereignty. Private claims and exactions have gone wild in this country, and by and by the fact will be plain, and we shall all see that, as the Record says, a great mistake has been made.

Mr. Bryan was not elected, but he got into a position, as a result of his two campaigns, in which he is able to command a good job if he wishes it. He has just declined an offer of $10,000 a year to become a member of the staff of the Denver Post. The paper would have made a big deal out of it if he had accepted, as it would have driven up its circulation abnormally, at least for a while, and the offer could have been easily discontinued after a year. There is much said about his becoming a Presbyterian minister, but of course, there is no foundation for this. He is also said to have expressed a desire to do "literary work." Perhaps the political pamphleteering which he would do under the name of literary work would be remunerative. We rather believe that he will find on the lecture platform a field for his labors for the present. After a while he may fill a niche in the lower house of Congress.

The unreasonable and unexpected conduct of General Tung Fu Hsiang, who controls the Chinese army and has the whole court in his power, is about to cause delay in the peace negotiations. The ministers of the Powers have demanded the heads of several Chinese princes, Tung Fu among them. But the hitch comes now when Tung quietly informs the Chinese court that if it agrees to have his head cut off, he will revolt and kick up a big fuss. While Tung's action will cause some trouble, we are rather inclined to think that he is excusable under the circumstances.

Travesty on Law.

Concord Standard.

What a travesty on law and order that a negro is taken up and put on the chain gang for stealing chickens when so many of the very men instrumental in his punishment go about fat enough on the labors of others that they are not making an honest effort to pay for. It's an outrage, pure and simple. The man who steals is as good as the man who enjoys your labors and belies you into trusting him to that for which he does not try to pay you.

What It is a Sign of.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

When a life insurance agent has to circulate slanderous reports against another company to do business for his own it's a sure sign that the slandered company does the business and he is an inferior agent and can't do a fair, square business.

When he gives you his mess see the other company's agent before you swallow.

Unneighborly Way of Treating a Guest.

Columbia S. C. Special.

Charley Johnson, an old man living near Bennettsville, a year ago married a young and attractive wife. Johnson thought his wife was encouraging attentions of Sherman Evans, a young neighbor, and ordered the latter to keep away from the house. Last evening Evans came, despite the protest of the old man, and Johnson ran a knife through his heart. Johnson has not yet been arrested.

The Modest Trust.

Philadelphia Record.

The Beef Trust has made but a moderate use of its post-election advantage in raising prices of beef, pork and mutton a beggarly ten per cent. Up with them! No time could be better chosen to find out "what the traffic will bear" in this branch of trust endeavor.

Next to the Consumer

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

CALLS HIS WIFE A HYPNOTIST.

AND BLAMES HER FOR HIS ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Arrested on Wife's Complaint, He Tells Story of an Unhappy Home—Declares He Was Refused a Glimpse of His Child. Woman Says She Hopes He Will Succeed Next Time—Eloped to Marry Him and Found Life Bitter—Laughs at Story.

Washington Post.

If the story told by John S. Proctor, thirty-four years old, who is under arrest at the Sixth precinct station, charged with making threats against his wife, is true, then the character of Strenghall, in Du Maurier's "Trilby," has a rival in real life, and what is far more strange, this alleged wielder of the art of hypnotism is a young and beautiful woman.

Behind the bars of his cell last night Proctor told The Post reporter that he is hypnotized by his wife, and that although he knows she is driving him to desperation he cannot keep away from her.

As he stood in the dim light of the gas in the prison corridor the warm blood was trickling from two long cuts on his neck, inflicted by himself with a pair of shears in his wife's room.

"Something in her eyes, her voice, draws me unwillingly back to her side," he cried. "She loves another, but that strange power she holds over me cannot be stamped out of my heart. I wish I could forget her, could go away, and erase her image from my memory, but I know it is impossible."

Proctor was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Mason on complaint of his wife, Mrs. Mina Proctor, who charged her husband with having threatened her life. The arrest was made at 513 H street northwest, where Mrs. Proctor is rooming. After pleading with his wife for a sight of their child, the young man snatched up a pair of shears and slashed at his throat with one of the long blades. The shears were dull, however, and they merely inflicted several painful, but not severe wounds. Officer Mason heard Mrs. Proctor's screams, and entered the room in time to prevent any further attempts at self-destruction. Proctor was locked up at the Sixth precinct station, where he is being carefully watched.

"I have always had a lot of trouble with my wife," said Proctor to The Post reporter. "I am a coachman, and have worked for Congressman Babcock, of Wisconsin. When my wife and I were married we got along finely for a time, and then she began to seek the society of other men. I quit her several times, but each time I would come back, God only knows why. She has a strange influence over me, and I cannot overcome it. Finally, I quit her for good, but I wanted to see our little girl, who is only four years old. This my wife refused to allow. Yesterday she came to my room at 417 H street northwest, and told me I could never see her again. I wanted to see my baby, and followed her to her house and went upstairs. Then I made up my mind to end it all. I wish I had had a razor instead of those miserable scissors."

Mrs. Proctor was seen at her home last night by a Post reporter. She is not more than twenty-two years old and is remarkably handsome, with a wealth of blond hair and a serious, unsmiling face, the sadness of which is accentuated by a pair of remarkable eyes—large, luminous, and dark blue. As she told her troubles last night they flashed with her excitement and softened and glowed as she choked back the tears.

"Why, it is not true that I ever hypnotized him," said Mrs. Proctor when asked if she possessed such a power over her husband. "I don't know what it means; but I do know that I am tired of him, and will tell the court something tomorrow that will open Mr. Proctor's eyes."

"I ran away to marry him when I was not more than seventeen years old. I met him at a summer resort in Virginia. He has threatened my life more than once, and I am tired of it all. Suicide? Yes, he did try it here, and I hope that he makes it go the next time. I wish he had killed himself long before I ever met him. He would not have ruined my life. As for going with other men, what has he got to say about it? I do not live with him, and since he has been out of work, I have given him money. I gave him $2 today."

A Havana scavenger scow was wrecked yesterday off Cabanas and four Cubans were drowned. The captain and engineer of the tow-boat Teresa, both Spaniards, have been arrested on charges of insufficiency, neglect and cowardice, and Capt. Young, captain of the port, has asked that they be indicted for manslaughter.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health."

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28.

I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

WINE OF CARDUI

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through

PARADISE FOR TRAMPS.

Larrikin Rules the Cities of Australia and Hoboes Terrorize the Country Districts.

For several reasons Australia may be regarded as the ideal abode of the hobo and the tramp, or, as the former is designated in the cities, the larrikin.

The larrikin, like the kangaroo, is peculiar to the Australian continent. In no other country, certainly not in the United States, would he even be permitted to exist.

In appearance, says the Boston Globe, he is undersized in stature, slight in build and sallow in complexion, probably owing to an early excessive use of cigarettes. His attire is unique and unmistakable. He wears a narrow brim felt hat on one side of his head, a short jacket reaching to the hips, pants very tight about the waist to the knees, but spreading out bell-shaped at the ankles to the tips of his shoes. The latter are invariably with high heels.

Singly a desperate coward, but in packs or gangs as he perambulates the sidewalks of Melbourne or Sydney, he becomes a terror to women and children and a menace to anyone he fancies he can insult with impunity. He rarely does any work and is never found out of the cities.

The Australian tramp much resembles the same species in America, only instead of "looking for work," he generally adopts the guise of a prospector. With "billy" or kettle in hand he trudges from one sheep station to another, enforcing hospitality by the fear that if such is not accorded a barn will be found ignited on his departure.

In no country in the world are the unemployed treated with so much consideration by the authorities as in Australia. As the labor vote controls the balance of political parties, and the floating population of unemployed are "workingmen," in that respect officials are chary of saying no to a deputation of this class of citizens.

For instance, as has more than once happened, if a body of unemployed should wait upon the minister of the interior with a request for free transportation on the government railroads to some remote district, where they assert work is to be found, the minister, particularly if an election is at hand, has no other recourse but to issue the tickets.

Then, if, when the place is reached, climatic or other conditions are not found to be as conjectured, a pressing request for return passage does not often meet with refusal.

Distilled Iron Will Not Rust.
Distilling various metals, Kahlbaum, of Basle, has found that a number of them that usually rust quickly—like iron or copper—are so purified that it becomes difficult to oxidize them. Iron is a beautiful silver-white metal that does not tarnish in the air. Tin proves to be the most difficult of the common metals to distill, as in a vacuum it does not begin to pass over until a temperature of 2912 degrees is reached.—Invention.

8058—Ladies' Tucked Shirt Waist.
32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 inch bust.

LADIES' TUCKED SHIRT WAIST, NO. 8058.

Wedgewood blue taffeta was chosen for this tucked shirt waist, which is mounted on a glove fitted lining.

The back is smooth across the shoulders and drawn down close to the waist line, where the slight fullness forms in tiny plaits.

The fronts are arranged in three clusters of two forward-turning tucks on each side of the double hem, through which the closing is effected with small silver buttons and buttonholes.

The shoulders are decorated with tucked straps, which extend from the neck to the arms-eye. The collar is deeper at the back than in front, and crosses over to the left side, fastening invisibly under the rounded edge.

The shirt sleeves have comfortable fullness distributed in gathers on the shoulders, and are completed with straight cuffs. The openings on the under sides are finished by narrow ruffles of taffeta.

The machine stitching on the collar, cuffs, tucks and front hem is done in heavy white silk, producing a most effective finish.

Lansdowne, poplin, French flannel, cashmere, serge or Henrietta are appropriate for this mode. It may also be developed in cotton cheviot, madras, pique, linen or lawn.

The style is particularly becoming to stout figures, and the pattern is cut in large sizes to meet this demand.

To make the waist in medium size will require three and three-quarter yards of twenty-two inch, or two and three quarter yards of thirty-six inch material. The pattern, No. 8058, is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inch bust measure.

THE TELEGRAM will receive and forward orders for all patterns described in this column. The price is only ten cents for each pattern to cover cost of mailing and handling. In ordering fill blank below and send to The Telegram office:

Please send me pattern No. ....
Size. .... Age. ....

MISCELLANEOUS.

BONNETS—At last, again, bonnets are considered, but in the openings they were shown in very small numbers, and were insignificant, comparatively, beside hats. A rather tall, narrow definite crown in some diamond-shaped at the top, and in other slightly tapering, with a brim widening out at the sides and curled back—to accommodate the pompadour fashion of dressing the hair—will give idea of the majority of the majority of the small bonnets now to be found in collections of head wear. Besides the shapes referred to, there are small bonnets with the gig-top crown; a bonnet with the crown folded in box-pleat about four inches wide at the top; a shape with a shelving rounded crown, and a modification of the little French capote—all with the brim curled back. The crowns are mostly of fancy materials, with the brims of velvet draped with spangled lace.—The Millinery Trade Review.

A THOUSAND TONGUES.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1. ### GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. ## TO THE PUBLIC.

The City Treasurer, on account of the unavoidable delay in the collection of the taxes which were due on the 1st day of October, 1900, finds himself at present short of funds, but by reason of the public spirit and accommodation of the Southern Stock Mutual Insurance Company and the Underwriters of Greensboro, I am able to announce that the said companies will cash at their face value all interest bearing warrants issued since September 1st, 1900, by the city to school teachers, policemen and other city employees, when they are in the hands of the original holders and do not exceed $100 each, provided that this order does not hold good after $3,000 has been expended in cashing the said warrants. Applications should be made at the bank counter of the Southern Loan and Trust Company.
